Honoring Our Veterans Today

Dear Catoctin residents,

A happy Veterans Day to all of you. On this day, we take the time to reflect, and to honor the veterans who have served in our armed forces. We are fortunate to have such remarkable people throughout our country and here in Loudoun County.

Many of us get to live and work alongside these remarkable folks. They are our family and friends, our neighbors and coworkers.

In fact, three of them serve here on the Loudoun County Board of Supervisors: Supervisor Buffington (a sergeant in the Marine Corps), Supervisor Umstatt (a Navy JAG officer and intelligence analyst), and Supervisor Turner (an Air Force officer and veteran of Desert Storm).

To my colleagues, and to all of our veterans:
Thank you for your service.

LOUDOUN COUNTY, VIRGINIA

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS Since the founding of our nation men and women have stepped forward to serve, wearing the uniform of the United States Armed Services; and
- WHEREAS Today men and women of the United States military are serving in both combat and peace-keeping missions across the globe; and
- WHEREAS Veterans of wars past and present have served and continue to serve with honor, courage, and commitment; and
- WHEREAS Loudoun County is proud to be home to approximately 42,000 men and women who have worn the cloth of our Nation in service to American democracy; and
- WHEREAS In 1946, Colonel Carl C. Johnson became the final Tuskegee Airman to earn his wings. Col. Johnson served our nation for over 40 years in combat and positions within the Department of Defense and the Federal Aviation Administration; and
- WHEREAS On behalf of the citizens of Loudoun County, The Loudoun County board of supervisors, recognize the service our veterans have made to defend our cherished rights and extends our sincere appreciation to all veterans for their courage, resolve, and service.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Loudoun County Board of Supervisors does hereby proclaim November 11, 2021, as in Loudoun County.
