Exceptional Time Involved in Auditing an Inventory or Account

When the audit of an inventory or account requires exceptional time, an hourly fee will be charged based on the quality, completeness, and accuracy of the Inventory or Account taking into consideration the following factors:

1. Time spent by the Commissioner and/or his or her staff in auditing an inventory or account and reviewing the supporting documentation;
2. Time spent making corrections to or assisting in the preparation of a proper inventory or account, or obtaining the necessary supporting documentation;
3. The dollar value, number, and nature of assets in the estate, and the assets outside of the estate which impact on the distribution of the probate estate;
4. Time spent on research and rendering decisions on questions of law;
5. Necessity for the Commissioner and/or his or her staff to review tax returns or other documents;
6. Time spent addressing complaints of beneficiaries concerning the inventory and/or account;
7. Necessity for the Commissioner to conduct hearings, confer or correspond with personal representatives, beneficiaries, and/or creditors on matters not normally required to be addressed during the administration of an estate;
8. Time spent reviewing a complex estate distribution scheme, including the apportionment of taxes, funding bypass trusts and marital shares or trusts and computations of beneficiary shares, including elective shares, allowances and exemptions; and
9. Any other matters deemed relevant by the Commissioner.

The hourly rates are:

$275 per hour for Commissioner

$100 per hour for Auditor
